The Role of Political Economy in Innovation and Green Development

Short title: VSI: Political Economy

A Special Issue of Innovation and Green Development (Elsevier)

About the Special Issue:

Portuguese Association of Political Economy jointly with CSG – Research in Social Sciences and Management, CESA – Centre for African and Development Studies, and SOCIUS – Centre for Research in Economic and Organizational Sociology will organize the 7th Annual Political Economy Meeting on January 25-27, 2024, hosted by ISEG – Lisbon School of Economics and Management, Universidade de Lisboa, Lisbon, Portugal (<https://www.economiapolitica.pt/encontro-2024>).

The main goal of this international meeting is to discuss the linkages between the policy and economy through the evolutionary prism of democratic transformation of the society, which resulted in different socio-economic projects, including among others the Innovation and Green Development as a sustainable approach to address the climate change and environmental concerns. Innovation and Green Development will publish a special issue “The Role of Political Economy in Innovation and Green Development” devoted to the 7th Annual Political Economy Meeting.

Authors of papers accepted to the 7th Annual Political Economy Meeting are invited to submit their manuscripts to this special issue. Empirical and theoretical papers related but not limited to the following topics are welcome:

- Regulatory landscape in the field of green innovation and development
- Economic policies for innovation and green development
- The role of education and culture in addressing environmental concerns
- Economic growth and quality of life
- Ecological transition and climate justice
- Circular economy and processes of sociotechnical change
- Digitization, governance, and sustainability
- Environment and Climate Change: Physical and Transitional Risks
- Sustainability regulations and reforms
- Partnership between the private and public sectors
